ARUN MONGA, J. (ORAL)

Petitions herein, inter alia, is for issuance of a writ in the nature of Mandamus for directing the respondents to declare the petitioners qualified in the written examination for the purpose of calling them in interview.

2. At the very outset, learned counsel for the petitioners states that claim of the petitioners has been accepted during pendency of the writ petition. Most of them have been offered appointment letters except petitioner No.4 – Harmeet Sandhu in CWP No.28978 of 2017, who could not appear for interview due to some medical problem, qua which he has submitted representation dated 18.10.2021 which is still pending and no decision has been taken on the same.

3. Learned State counsel submits that a decision will be taken by the competent authority, either way, on the pending representation of the said petitioner by passing a speaking order as expeditiously as possible.

4. In the premise, writ petition is disposed of with the expectation that the administrative decision will be taken on the pending representation of the said petitioner, as expeditiously as possible, and the petitioner shall be at liberty to avail remedy as per law, in case the administrative order is not favourable.

5. Pending civil miscellaneous application, if any, also stands disposed of.
