For the reasons mentioned in the application, the same is allowed and the main appeal is taken up on board today itself.

FAO-M-279-2012

Learned counsel for the appellant has filed an application for converting the present appeal into petition under Section 13B of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 (for short 'the Act') for dissolution of marriage by a decree of divorce by mutual consent in the Court today.
The application is allowed and the joint petition along with affidavits of the parties is taken on record.

The Registry is directed to allot number to the above-said application after following the due procedure.

In the present case, the marriage of the parties were solemnized on 28.06.2007. There is no child from this marriage. On account of temperamental differences, they could not pull long together. Even Panchayat was convened to resolve the dispute between the parties. The petition for divorce was filed by husband-Vikram Singh Mor which was dismissed. During the pendency of the appeal in the present case, the parties have resolved the dispute and have decided to part away by getting divorce under Section 13B of the Hindu Marriage Act.

The parties have amicably and voluntarily settled their matrimonial dispute and have decided to get divorce by way of mutual consent. Affidavits of the parties have been annexed with the application.

Learned counsel for the appellant submits that as per the compromise, the appellant has paid rupees one crore and twenty lakhs by way of 07 demand drafts to the respondent in lieu of full and final settlement.

Learned counsel for the respondent has admitted the above-said fact.

The parties are present in Court and they are not disputing the compromise arrived at between them. Statements of both the parties have also been recorded. Self attested copies of Aadhar Cards of both the parties are taken on record.

In the present case the parties have amicably resolved their dispute. As per the joint petition, the appellant-husband has paid rupees one crore and twenty lakhs by way of 07 demand drafts to the respondent-wife in lieu of full and final settlement and Rs.25,000/- in cash has also been paid to the respondent-wife as travelling allowance.

Since all the conditions of the joint petition have been complied with, the present appeal is allowed, the impugned order is set aside and the parties are granted divorce under Section 13B of the Hindu Marriage Act. Decree sheet be drawn accordingly.
