

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

(202)

CRM-M-41162-2022

Date of Decision : November 24, 2022

Marry Khumla Chang

.. Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

.. Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI

Present: Mr. Tarun Singhal, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Teevar Sharma, Assistant Advocate General, Punjab.

HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the petitioner argues that though the present petition was filed for the grant of interim bail on the basis of medical health of the petitioner but keeping in view the report of the Medical Board, copy of which has been appended with medical status report filed on 23.11.2022, the petitioner does not wish to press the claim for the grant of interim bail.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is also not pressing for the grant of regular bail but as the petitioner is behind the bars for the last more than two and half years and none of the witness has been examined, the petitioner will suffer indefinite incarceration as the petitioner is not getting the speedy justice.

Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that the trial Court be directed to conclude the trial in a time bound manner so that the petitioner could get speedy trial.

Learned counsel for respondent-State raises no objection with regard to the grant of said prayer.

Keeping in view the above, the trial Court is directed to conclude the proceedings within a period of six months from the next date of hearing, even if the same is to be done by giving short adjournments.

The present petition is disposed of in above terms.
