CRM-21115-2021:

This is an application filed by Karamjit Kaur for impleading her as respondent No.2 in the main petition.

For the reasons mentioned in the application, Karamjit Kaur is permitted to be impleaded as respondent No.2 in the main petition.

Application stands allowed after accepting the amended memorandum of parties.

CRM-M-40830-2020:

The present petition has been filed on behalf of the petitioner for grant of regular bail in FIR No.189, dated 28.06.2020, under Sections 307, 341, 323, 506, 148 and 149 of the IPC, registered at Police Station

Short reply by way of affidavit of Mr. Deepak Singh, Deputy Superintendent of Police, Circle Bhawanigarh, District Sangrur (Punjab) is filed on behalf of the State. The same be kept on record.

Learned counsel for the petitioner very fairly submits that as the complainants/victims are yet to be examined, the petitioner does not press the present petition at this stage and the same may kindly be disposed of as such.

Ordered accordingly.

At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that as the Courts are working in restrictive manner due to Covid-19 pandemic, the learned trial Court may kindly be directed to examine both the complainants/victims as the next witnesses, so that, in case after their testimonies, the petitioner becomes entitled for the grant of bail, he can exercise his said remedy.

Learned State counsel as well as learned counsel for the complainant raises no objection in case both the complainants/victims are examined as the next witnesses by the learned trial Court, as expeditiously as possible.

Keeping in view the above, the learned trial Court is directed that both the complainants/victims be examined as the next witnesses, as expeditiously as possible, preferably within a period of two months from the next date fixed in the learned trial Court.
