Learned State counsel, based on the reply, submits that as per investigation carried out till date, the petitioners have been exonerated and the police did not find any role in the offence. Learned counsel further submits that given this stand of the State, the present petition is not maintainable. However, in case, the State arraigns the petitioners as accused at that stage the petitioners are at liberty to file fresh petition.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the investigation against the petitioners is abuse of process of law. Learned counsel for the petitioners further submits that since the State already exonerated the petitioners at this stage, as such he be permitted to withdraw with liberty to file a fresh petition.

Given above, the present petition is disposed of as having been withdrawn.

It is clarified that in case the petitioners are arraigned as accused by the State, in that eventuality, no coercive steps shall be taken for one week so that the petitioners will avail legal remedy by filing a fresh petition under Section 438 & 482 Cr.P.C.
