                    Although the learned counsel representing the petitioner is not present, however, this Court has gone through the revision petition. This revision petition has been filed complaining that the First Appellate Court while issuing notice in the civil miscellaneous appeal did not grant the interim protection. While issuing notice of motion on 22.08.2019, no interim protection was granted by this Court.

                    It has been noticed that the first appeal was filed in June, 2019.

                    Keeping in view the aforesaid facts, the First Appellate Court is directed to either decide the application for grant of interim protection or decide the appeal itself within a period of 15 days, from today.

                    With these observations, the present petition is disposed of.

                    All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
