| CriminalComplaint | No. 3535/17, under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act,District Faridabad, |
|-----------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

1. Challenging the order issuing proclamation, the petitioner had come up before this court.
2. Vide order dated 3-2-2020, a co-ordinate bench of this court had directed the petitioner to appear before the trial court within two weeks i.e. before Covid-19 lockdown.
3. The petitioner did not file any application seeking extension of time, as such this court shall presume that such directions were complied with.
4. Regarding quashing of proclamation, a reference to the petitioner does not find the order dated 10.09.2018, which was fixed for effecting proclamation. The petitioner has challenged the previous order dated 10-09-2018, vide which the JMIC had directed the issuance of proclamation and date was fixed for 13-11-2018. Thus, there is nothing on record to know what order the court had passed on 13-11-2018. Resultantly, there is nothing to adjudicate further.
5. Given above, the petition is disposed of with liberty to challenge proclamation order dated 13-11-2018, if any such order passed and if required, by placing the copies of both, and mentioning the latest case status. It shall also be permissible to bring to this court’s notice any subsequent developments.

Petition disposed of. All pending applications, if any, stand disposed.
