CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN

Present: Mr. Rahul Vats, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Suneet Kumar, Advocate for the respondent.

ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN J. (Oral)

Prayer in this petition is for transfer of the petition filed under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, pending in the Family Court, Camp Court Hansi, District Hisar to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Kurukshetra.

Vide order dated 09.11.2021, the following order was passed:-

“Learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the distance is about 300 Kms. (to and fro) which the wife has to travel from Kurukshetra to Hansi along with her minor daughter aged 2 years and 11 months. Learned counsel for the petitioner would further contend that the following cases are already pending at District Courts, Kurukshetra:-

(a) FIR No.495 dated 20.09.2020 under Sections 498-A, 406 & 323 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 related to Police Station Thanesar Sadar, Kurukshetra;

(b) Petition under Section 12 of Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005; and.

(c) Petition under Section 125 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 for grant of maintenance for herself and for her minor daughter.

Notice of motion returnable 24.01.2022.”

Counsel for the petitioner has argued that on account of a matrimonial discord, the respondent/husband has filed the petition under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, as a counter-blast, before the Principal Judge, Family Court, Camp Court Hansi, District Hisar.

Counsel for the petitioner has also argued that on account of a petition filed by the respondent/husband, the petitioner is facing great difficulty in prosecuting the said case as there is a distance of about 300 Kms from Kurukshetra to Camp Court Hansi, District Hisar.

Counsel for the petitioner has further contended that the petitioner is having a minor child, who is living in her care and custody and she is facing difficulty to defend the case as she has to travel from Kurukshetra to Camp Court Hansi, District Hisar.

Counsel for the petitioner has relied upon the judgments “Sumita Singh vs Kumar Sanjay”, 2002 SC 396 and “Rajani Kishor Pardeshi vs Kishor Babulal Pardeshi”, 2005(12) SCC 237, wherein the Hon’ble Supreme Court has observed that while deciding the transfer application, the Courts are required to give more weightage and consideration to the convenience of the female litigants and transfer of legal proceedings from one Court to another should ordinarily be allowed, taking into consideration their convenience and the Courts should desist from putting female litigants under undue hardships.”

Counsel for the petitioner has also relied upon the judgment “N.C.V. Aishwarya vs A.S. Saravana Karthik Sha,” 2022 Live Law (SC) 627, wherein the Hon’ble Supreme Court has observed as under:-

9. The cardinal principle for exercise of power under section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.

10. Further, when two or more proceedings are pending in different Courts between the same parties which raise common question of fact and law, and when the decisions in the cases are interdependent, it is desirable that they should be tried together by the same Judge so as to avoid multiplicity in trial of the same issues and conflict of decisions.”

It is well settled that while considering the transfer of a matrimonial dispute/case at the instance of the wife, the Court is to consider the family condition of the wife, the custody of the minor child, economic condition of the wife, her physical health and earning capacity of the husband and most important the convenience of the wife i.e. she cannot travel alone without assistance of a male member of her family, connectivity of the place to and fro from her place of residence as well as bearing of the litigation charges and travelling expenses.

Counsel for the respondent has, however, not disputed the factual position but opposed the submissions made by counsel for the petitioner.

After hearing the counsel for the parties, considering the fact that the petitioner/wife will have to bear the litigation expenses and transportation expenses and in view of the judgments i.e. Sumita Singh's case (supra), Rajani Kishor Pardeshi's case (supra) and N.C.V. Aishwarya's case (supra) passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, this Court deem it appropriate to allow the present petition, subject to the following conditions:-

1. The petition filed under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, pending before the Family Court, Camp Court Hansi, District Hisar will be transferred to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Kurukshetra.
2. The District Judge, Kurukshetra, will assign the said petition to the competent Court of jurisdiction.
3. The Family Court, Camp Court Hansi, District Hisar is directed to transfer all the record pertaining to the aforesaid case to District Judge, Kurukshetra.
4. The parties are directed to appear before the trial Court, Kurukshetra, within a period of 01 month from today.
5. The Family Court, Kurukshetra will make all endeavour to refer the case before the Mediation and Conciliation Centre for exploring the possibility of some amicable settlement between the parties.
6. The Court concerned, where the litigation pending between the parties, will accommodate them with one date in one calendar month.

Disposed of.
