SURESHWAR THAKUR, J. (Oral)

CM 3842-CWP-2018 and CM-8081-CWP-2020

1. Since the impleadment of the applicants in the above mentioned applications/petition is just, and, essential for a complete adjudication, being made in the instant writ petition, thus, the applications are allowed, and, the applicants are permitted to be impleaded in the array of respondents. No notice is required to be served upon the newly impleaded respondents as they are duly represented by the counsel.

2. Requisite corrections be made in the memo of parties by the Registry of this Court.

Civil Writ Petition 8115 of 2017

1. Since, the claim made in the instant writ petition for appropriate action, in accordance with law, being drawn against the newly impleaded respondents concerned, is fairly stated at the bar by Mr. Aman Pal, Advocate, to become mitigated, inasmuch as, post the institution of the instant writ petition before this Court, an FIR has been registered against the respondents concerned, thus obviously, the instant writ petition is closed and is accordingly disposed off.

2. However, it is made clear that if yet any recovery has to be made from the respondents concerned, as such, it is open to the Collector concerned to after hearing all concerned, to ensure that all the relevant recoveries are made from the errant respondents concerned.

3. Pending applications, if any, also stand disposed off accordingly.
