Counsel appearing for the State argues that after filing of the petition, the challan has been presented before the trial Court and petitioner has all remedies to agitate his grievance before the trial Court.

Faced with this, counsel for the petitioner submits that Police filed challan before the trial Court after deleting some Sections and he be given liberty to file appropriate application before the trial Court at an appropriate stage, if need so arise.

Consequently, the petition is disposed of with liberty aforesaid.

Pending application, if any also stands disposed of.
