MANJARI NEHRU KAUL, J. (Oral)

The instant petition is for quashing of FIR No. 203, dated 30.08.2016, under Sections 379, 323, 376, 498-A, 506 of IPC, registered at Police Station Cheeka, District Kaithal (annexed as Annexure P-1) and all the consequential proceedings arising out of the same, on the basis of compromise-deed dated 07.10.2021 (annexed as Annexure P-2), arrived at between the parties.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that on account of a marital discord between the parties, FIR in question came into the existence at the instance of respondent No.2. He further submits that subsequently the matter stands amicably resolved between the parties.

Vide order dated 15th December, 2021, of this Court, the parties were directed to appear before the learned Illaqa Magistrate/trial Court on 19th January, 2022, to get their statements recorded, regarding the compromise arrived at, between them.

Report has since been received from the learned SDJM, Guhla, in pursuance to the direction of this Court, wherein, the factum of the compromise arrived at between the parties stands verified and confirmed. As per the report, compromise has indeed been effected between the parties and the same is without any pressure or coercion and out of their free will and the complainant has also made statement to the effect that she would have no objection if the FIR qua the accused-petitioners is quashed. The trial Court has annexed the statements of the parties in original along with its report.

Learned State counsel too submits that there is no other accused other than the petitioners and respondent No.2 is the only aggrieved person in the FIR in question.

In view of the report of the learned learned SDJM, Guhla, and the principles laid down by the Apex Court in Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and others (2012) 10 SCC 303, and in Narinder Singh and others Vs. State of Punjab and another, 2014(2) R.C.R. (Criminal) 482, the instant petition is allowed. The aforesaid FIR and all consequential proceedings arising out of it, are quashed.

Needless to say the parties shall remain bound by the terms of compromise and their statements recorded before the Court below.
