Present writ petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution, inter alia, for quashing the entire proceedings pending before the State Information Commissioner in Complaint Case No.945 of 2017 (P-3).

After arguing for some time, learned counsel, on instructions from petitioner, wishes to withdraw the present writ petition with liberty to raise all the pleas available under law including maintainability of Complaint Case No.945 of 2017, before the Commission.

Dismissed as withdrawn with liberty aforesaid.

Needless to say that since the main case is dismissed as withdrawn, interim stay granted by this Court shall stand vacated automatically.
