SURJIT KAUR

.... Appellant

Versus

DAVINDER SINGH & ANR

.... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE RITU BAHRI
HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE MANISHA BATRA

Present : Appellant in person with
Mr. Ranjit Sharma, Advocate.

Respondent No.1 in person with
Mr. Gurmeet Singh, Advocate.

RITU BAHRI, J. (oral)

The present appeal has been filed by the appellant-wife against the judgment and decree dated 04.12.2015 passed by the learned Additional District Judge, Tarn Taran, whereby the respondent was granted decree of divorce under Section 13 (1) (ia) of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955.

Vide order dated 27.05.2022, the parties were directed to appear before the Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court.

As per the report of the Mediator dated 02.06.2022, the parties resolved their dispute amicably and a settlement/agreement has been reduced in writing on 02.06.2022.

As per the settlement/agreement, it was agreed between the parties that an amount of Rs.4,00,000/-(Rs. Four Lakh only) will be paid towards permanent alimony (past, present and future maintenance) to the appellant – wife and her two daughters. Statements of the parties to this effect have been recorded today.

As per the statements made by the parties, the respondent-husband has paid Rs.4,00,000/-(Rs. Four Lakh only), towards the permanent alimony for the appellant-wife and her two daughters (past, present and future maintenance) through NEFTs (details of the which has been mentioned in the settlement/agreement deed). The respondent-husband undertakes to transfer the house of which he is absolute owner, in which appellant-wife is residing with two daughters, in the name of the appellant-wife within a period of two months. Appellant-wife undertakes not to claim anything towards past, present and future maintenance and seeks withdrawal of the present appeal. The respondent-husband also undertakes to withdraw all the cases pending against the appellant-wife.

In view of the above settlement/agreement and statements made by the parties, the present appeal is being allowed to be withdrawn. Subject to the condition that if any of the condition of the settlement/agreement and statements made by the parties, is not carried out, the appellant will be at liberty to revive the present appeal.
