Instant appeal has been filed by the appellants seeking enhancement of the compensation awarded by the learned Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Hissar vide its award dated 24.01.2017, to the tune of ₹8,94,000/- along with interest @ 7.5% p.a. from the date of filing of the claim petition till realization.

It has been brought to the notice of this Bench that the matter has been amicably settled. Statements of both the parties/counsel have been recorded separately, which are taken on record as mark 'A' and 'B', respectively.

A perusal of the statements would show that the appellants as well as respondent-Insurance Company have amicably settled the matter by stating that an amount of ₹7,00,000/- (Rupees Seven Lakhs only) over and above the amount already awarded by the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Hissar will be paid as full and final settlement by the Insurance Company to the appellants. Our attention is drawn to the factum that the appellant-claimants are husband and wife (parents of the deceased).

Learned counsel appearing for respondent-Insurance Company has further stated that the said enhanced amount would be paid by the Insurance Company to the appellants (through appellant No.2, as agreed) within a period of 5 weeks, failing which interest @ 9% p.a. shall follow on the above said amount till payment from the date of this order.

Parties have also mutually agreed and expressed that the aforesaid amount may be remitted by way of single cheque, in the name of appellant No.2, which would discharge the liability in respect of both the appellants.

It is further stated that a cheque for a sum of ₹7,00,000/- in the name of the appellant No.2 will be deposited with the office of the Lok Adalat within the aforesaid period failing which interest @ 9 % p.a. shall accrue on the said amount from the date of this order, till its realization. The Insurance Company also has the option to transfer the amounts by way of RTGS, on details being furnished by counsel for the claimant(s).

In view of the above, we are of the considered opinion that the settlement is genuine and bona fide and in the best interest of the litigating parties.

Accordingly, instant appeal is disposed of as having been amicably settled. The settlement shall be treated as part and parcel of the award and the impugned award passed by the learned Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Hissar stands modified as indicated above. The parties will be bound by the said settlement.

The concerned officer of the Lok Adalat Branch/Office shall issue proper receipt after receiving the Cheque/Demand Draft to learned counsel/representative for the respondent-Insurance Company. The appellants' counsel/ appellant(s) may collect the said cheques/demand drafts from the office of the Lok Adalat.

As the main appeal has been disposed of, no separate order needs to be passed in the pending application(s), if any.
