MANJARI NEHRU KAUL, J. (Oral)

The instant petition has been filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C. for grant of regular bail in case FIR No. 500 dated 10.08.2019 under Sections 148/149/313/323/498-A/506/509 IPC registered at Police Station Samalkha, Panipat.

Learned counsel contends that it was on account of a matrimonial dispute between the petitioner and his wife i.e. the complainant that the FIR in question had been registered. Learned counsel submits that subsequent to the registration of the FIR in question the parties had amicably settled their dispute before the Mediation & Conciliation Centre of this Court. He further submits that thereafter this court had been approached under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of the FIR in question on the basis concession of bail as the petitioner has now been in custody since 11.08.2019 and his further incarceration would not serve any useful purpose.

The learned State counsel, assisted by PSI Gaurav Singh, does not dispute the submissions made by the counsel opposite with respect to the parties having amicably resolved their dispute and also having approached this court for quashing of the FIR on the basis of compromise.

Heard.

In view of the facts and circumstances as aforementioned above, the instant petition is allowed and the petitioner is admitted to bail to the satisfaction of trial Court/Duty Magistrate.
