

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

Sr.No.131

CRM-M-45828-2022

Date of Decision: 30.09.2022

Karamdeep Singh @ Pam

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMAN CHAUDHARY

Present:- Mr. Ritesh Pandey, Advocate for the petitioner.

AMAN CHAUDHARY, J.

Present petition has been filed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for setting aside the order dated 09.08.2022, Annexure P-3, passed by learned Additional Sessions Judge, Gurdaspur whereby his bail bonds and surety bonds were cancelled and he has been summoned through non-bailable warrants.

Learned counsel for petitioner contends that in the FIR registered against him, the petitioner had sought and was granted anticipatory bail by this Court vide order dated 17.11.2021. After presentation of challan, the petitioner having been granted bail had been regularly appearing in the Court. However, on 9.8.2022, the petitioner was unable to appear on account having fallen ill, a reference in this regard is made to the medical certificate, Annexure P-2. This fact was also informed by him to his counsel, who had also apprised the Court regarding the illness of the petitioner, however, no application for exemption was filed, leading to cancellation of his bail order, bail bonds, forfeiture of surety bonds to the State, issuance of non-bailable warrants for 29.09.2022.

Learned counsel further submits that his non-appearance before the trial Court is neither wilful nor deliberate and the same is only on account of the fact that he had fallen ill and this fact was apprised by his counsel to the Court. He, however, submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to join the proceedings, even if it is subject to costs. In support of his arguments learned counsel for the petitioner relies upon judgment of this Court in CRM-M-38277-2022 dated 26.08.2022, in the case of “Surjit Singh Vs. State of Punjab” and CRM-M-39000-2022, titled as 'Raghav vs. State of Punjab', decided on 9.9.2022.

Notice of motion.

At the asking of the Court, Mr. Manipal Singh Atwal, DAG, Punjab accepts notice and submits that the impugned order has been rightly passed by the learned trial Court.

In this case, notice has not been issued to the complainant as he has not been impleaded as respondent party and as no order prejudicial to the rights of the complainant, is being proposed to be passed by this Court.

Heard the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the parties.

The very purpose of issuance of non-bailable warrants, is to secure the presence of the accused to face trial and establish the rule of law so as to ensure finalization of the proceedings. The non-bailable warrants for 29.09.2022 and the present petition was filed on 26.09.2022, which reflects the bonafide of the petitioner.

The explanation offered by the petitioner for his non-appearance in this case before the trial Court seems to be justified. It cannot be construed as a deliberate and willful absence.

This Court in Major Singh vs. State of Punjab, CRM-M-3649-2022, decided on 15.9.2022, in somewhat similar circumstances, while setting aside the order, observed thus:

“This Court while noticing the bonafide of the petitioner; explanation given for his absence being justified; the object to be achieved being to secure the presence of the petitioner in the proceedings; expedition of trial and its early culmination being in the interest of the parties; in order to meet the ends of justice; judgments referred to above being applicable to the instant case, is allowing this petition, though deeming it appropriate to impose certain conditions for meticulous adherence at the hands of the petitioner.

In view of the forgoing conclusion and in the peculiarity of the facts and circumstances of the case, as also held by the Coordinate Bench of this Court in the cases of Naveen Rao (supra) and Dimple Kumar (supra) and in the interest of justice, the impugned order dated 19.7.2022, Annexure P5, is hereby set aside.”

In view of the facts and circumstances of this case and the judgments referred to above, the impugned order dated 09.08.2022, Annexure P-3, is set aside, subject to deposit of Rs.10,000/- with the Punjab and Haryana High Court Bar Association Advocates' Welfare Fund. The petitioner is directed to surrender before the trial Court on or before 28.10.2022, before the trial Court and furnish his fresh bail/ surety bonds. On so doing, the trial Court shall release him on bail by imposing heavy surety to its satisfaction. He is also directed to furnish an undertaking by way of his affidavit that he will appear on each and every date of hearing before the trial Court, unless specifically exempted by the Court.

Before parting with this order, it is made abundantly clear that in case the petitioner does not adhere to the aforesaid, the present petition shall be deemed to have been dismissed without any reference to this Court.
