Vs.
Hukum Chand Gurjar and others

Present: Mr. Rao Ajender Singh, Advocate for the appellants.

Mr. Punit Jain, Advocate for respondent No.3-Insurance Company.

CM-13256-CII-2017

Present application has been filed under Section 5 of the Limitation Act for condonation of delay of 14 days in filing the present appeal.

In view of the averments made in the present application, the same is allowed. Accordingly, the delay of 14 days in filing the present appeal is condoned.

FAO-4218-2017

This is an appeal filed by the appellants-claimants for enhancement while seeking modification of the award dated 10.11.2016, vide which the learned Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Rewari (hereinafter to be referred as “the Tribunal”) has awarded an amount of Rs.14,40,000/- alongwith interest @ 7.5.% per annum from the date of filing of the claim petition till realization of the amount so awarded.

It has been brought to the notice of this Court that the matter has been compromised. The statement of Mr. Rao Ajender Singh, Advocate appearing for the appellants/claimants has been recorded, which is reproduced herein below:-

“Statement of Sh. Rao Ajender Singh, Advocate, learned counsel for the applicant(s)/appellant(s)/claimant(s).

On the instructions of my client(s), I am prepared to accept Rs.4,75,000/- Rupees Four Lacs Seventy Five Thousand only, over and above the amount already awarded by the MACT.

This would be in full and final satisfaction of the claim of the appellant(s) in the appeal.

The aforementioned amount may be paid to appellant No.3 Jyoti (widow), in proportion as already awarded by the MACT.

A perusal of the above statements would show that the appellants/claimants as well as the Insurance Company have compromised the matter by stating that a compensation of Rs.4,75,000/- over and above the amount already awarded by the Tribunal, will be paid by the Insurance Company to the appellants/claimants.

Counsel appearing for the respondent-Insurance Company has further stated that the said amount would be paid by the Insurance Company to the appellants within a period of 4 weeks from today, failing which the interest @ 9% p.a. shall follow from the date of the settlement before the Lok Adalat till the date of payment.

Insurance Company has further stated that a cheque amounting to Rs.4,75,000/- in the name of appellants, will be deposited with the office of the Lok Adalat of this High Court on or before 14.06.2022, failing which the interest @ 9% p.a. shall follow on this amount till the payment from the date of this order.

In view of the above, we are of the opinion that the compromise is genuine and bona fide and in the best interest of the claimants as well as all the parties concerned.

Accordingly, the appeal is disposed of as having been compromised and the compromise shall be treated as part and parcel of the award, and the order of the Tribunal, stands modified in terms of the said compromise. The parties will be bound by the said compromise.

The concerned officer of the Lok Adalat Branch/Office shall issue proper receipt after receiving the Cheque/Demand Draft to learned counsel/representative of the respondent-Insurance Company. The appellant(s)/ counsel for appellant(s) may collect the cheque from the office of the Lok Adalat.
