This writ petition in the nature of Habeas Corpus was filed for release of detainee (friend of the petitioner).

As per the pleadings, petitioner and the detainee wanted to solemnize marriage. The petitioner and detainee came from Uplana to Chandigarh where they were caught by the police. The detainee was handed over to her parents, who assured that they would solemnize their marriage shortly.

Notice of motion was issued to official respondents on 30th September, 2022.

Learned State counsel has produced the statements of the detainee recorded before SDJM, Assandh. In the statement detainee stated that she was living with her parents without any pressure and she wants to live with them and pursue her studies.

In view of the statement, there is no illegal detention, no further directions are called for, the petition is dismissed.
