IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-51560-2021

Date of decision:14.02.2022

TEJPREET SINGH AND ANOTHER

...Petitioners

Versus

STATE OF PUNJAB

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SURESHWAR THAKUR

Present: Mr. N.S. Dadwal, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Bhupender Beniwal, AAG, Punjab.

(Through Video Conferencing)

SURESHWAR THAKUR, J. (ORAL)

1. In FIR No.0205 of 08.10.2021, offences constituted under Sections 365, 149 IPC are embodied. FIR (supra), is registered at Police Station City Jagraon, District Jalandhar Rural.
2. The learned State counsel on instructions meted to him, by SI Mohinder Singh submits, that the bail petitioners have fully co-operated with the investigations, as underway into the FIR (supra), and, also submits, that their further participation, and, co-operation to the investigating officer is not required.
3. The learned State counsel submits, that in view of the above, there may not be any necessity for subjecting the bail petitioners to custodial interrogation. The above submission is well merited, as any order subjecting the bail petitioners to custodial interrogation, despite theirs meteing the fullest cooperation to the investigating officer concerned, would curtail, and, fetter their personal liberty.

4. In summa the order made, as by this Court, on 10.12.2021, is made absolute on the same terms and conditions.
