ANIL KSHETARPAL, J(Oral)

Pursuant to the order of remand, the Reference Court (hereinafter referred to as 'the RC') is seized of the matter with regard to the assessment of the market value of the acquired land. The petitioner's application for issuing the direction to the Land Acquisition Collector to forward a correct Form-19 in order to include his entire acquired land has been disposed of by the Court on the ground that the matter has been remanded back by the High Court. In fact, the application was filed with the multiple prayers including the payment of compensation. The RC disposed of the same as infructuous in view of the order of remand passed by the Court.

The application was filed when the appeal was pending in this Court.

Keeping in view the aforesaid facts, the revision petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to file appropriate fresh application requesting the Court to call for proper Form-19 so as to include his entire land for which reference was sought.

With all these observations, the revision petition is disposed of.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
