Versus

Gulshan Kumar Ohri and others

..Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. Akshay Jindal, Advocate for the petitioner

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J (Oral)

An interlocutory order passed by the trial court, permitting the plaintiff to amend the plaint, at the initial stage of the trial, has been challenged by filing the present revision petition. Most of the amendments sought are on account of over-sight or typographical errors. The case is at the preliminary stage. The trial court in exercise of its discretion has allowed the amendments.

Hence, no ground to interfere is made out.

Dismissed.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
