ANOOP CHITKARA J. (ORAL)

Seeking extension of parole already granted to the petitioner vide order dated 23.08.2022 on medical grounds, the convict, who is 74 years old lady, has come up before this Court.

Considering the limited jurisdiction before this Court, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he would be contended and satisfied in case when he makes representation to the concerned Superintendent of Jail for extension of parole, the same shall be decided within 24 hours as the petitioner has to surrender tomorrow; suffering from serious medical illness and needs surgery.

Although the petitioner has come up before this Court at the eleventh hour but still considering her old age and she being a woman, she is permitted to send a representation through a messenger to the concerned Superintendent of Jail, who shall decide the same positively by tomorrow i.e. 19.10.2022. In case the application is dismissed, he shall pass reasoned, valid and detailed speaking order.

Given above, the parole is extended till 20.10.2022 and now the petitioner has to surrender on 20.10.2022 instead of 19.10.2022 by 4:00 p.m.

Accordingly, petition is disposed of to the extent as mentioned above.
