Prayer in the instant petition filed under Section 482 Cr.PC is for quashing of FIR No.500 dated 10.08.2019 under Sections 148, 149, 313, 323, 498-A, 506, 509 IPC registered at Police Station Samalkha, District Panipat and all the consequential proceedings arising out of the same, on the basis of compromise dated 02.12.2021 arrived at, between the parties.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that FIR in question emanates from a matrimonial dispute between petitioner No.1 and the complainant-wife. He further submits that subsequent to the registration of the FIR in question, the parties have ironed out all their differences and arrived at an amicable settlement.

Vide order dated 21.12.2021 of this Court, the parties were directed to appear before the learned trial Court/Illaq Magistrate to get their respective statements recorded regarding the compromise arrived at, between them.

Report dated 14.01.2022 has since been received from the JMIC, Samalkha (Panipat) in pursuance to the direction of this Court. As per the report, compromise has indeed been effected between the parties and the same is without any pressure or coercion and out of their free will. Learned State counsel assisted by counsel for respondent No.2 also submits that there is no other accused other than the petitioners and respondent No.2 is the only aggrieved person in the FIR in question.

Learned counsel for respondent No.2 does not dispute the submissions made by counsel for the petitioners. He also does not oppose the prayer made by the petitioners for quashing of the FIR in question.

In view of the report of the learned JMIC, Samalkha(Panipat) and the principles laid down by the Apex Court in Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and others (2012) 10 SCC 303 and Narinder Singh and others Vs. State of Punjab and another 2014(2) R.C.R. (Criminal) 482, the instant petition(s) is allowed.
