One girl child namely Ankdeep Kaur was born out of the wedlock in the year 2005. The marriage did not work and the parties started living separately. A petition under Section 13 of the Act for grant of decree of divorce on the grounds of cruelty and adultery was filed by the respondent-husband which was allowed by learned Additional District Judge, Sangrur, vide judgment and decree dated 20.03.2018. Against the said judgment and decree, the appellant-wife has preferred the instant appeal.

Notice of motion in the instant appeal was issued on 26.04.2018 and thereafter on 04.05.2022 the parties were directed to remain present in the Court so that possibility of an out of Court settlement between them can be explored.

On 25.05.2022, the parties were present in the Court and they had amicably settled the matter with the assistance of their respective counsel. The respondent-husband was agreed to pay Rs.50,00,000/- in lieu of permanent alimony which was accepted by the appellant-wife. First motion statements of the parties were recorded on 25.05.2022.

Second motion statements of the parties have been recorded. It is stated by both the parties that they will withdraw all the pending cases/complaints, if any, filed by them against each other and will not file any case/complaint concerning this matrimonial relationship, in future.

Learned counsel for the appellant submits that daughter-Ankdeep Kaur has carried a little fear that her father may not stop talking to her.
