

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

TA No.1285 of 2022 (O&M)

Date of decision: 12.12.2022

Neetu Rani

...Petitioner

Ranjeet

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE NIDHI GUPTA

Present:- Mr. Amandeep Chhabra, Advocate for the petitioner.

NIDHI GUPTA, J.(ORAL)

1. Prayer in this petition filed by petitioner wife is for transfer of the petition filed by respondent-husband under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, bearing No.HMA-428-2022 titled "Ranjeet vs. Smt. Neetu Rani" pending in the Court of Principal Judge, Family Court, Sirsa to a court of competent jurisdiction at Sri Muktsar Sahib.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner, inter alia, submits that:

i) that the marriage between the parties was solemnised in the past 17 years ago according to Hindu rites and rituals.

ii) that two sons were born out of this wedlock and one is residing with the petitioner, another is with the respondent.

iii) that the petitioner along with her son is living with her aged parents at Sri Muktsar Sahib.

iv) that the petitioner has no source of income.

v) that the distance between her place of residence and place of proceedings is 150 kms. (one side)

3. Office report shows that notice issued to the respondent has been received back with the report that he refused to accept same.

4. I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

5. The legal position in such like cases as the present one, is well established. In this regard, judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court rendered in N.C.V. Aishwarya vs A.S. Saravana Karthik Sha," 2022 Live Law (SC) 627, is most relevant wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held as under:-

“9. The cardinal principle for exercise of power under section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.

10. Further, when two or more proceedings are pending in different Courts between the same parties which raise common question of fact and law, and when the decisions in the cases are interdependent, it is desirable that they should be tried together by the same Judge so as to avoid multiplicity in trial of the same issues and conflict of decisions.”

6. Further reliance can be placed upon the judgments in “Sumita Singh vs Kumar Sanjay”, 2002 SC 396 and “Rajani Kishor Pardeshi vs Kishor Babulal Pardeshi”, 2005(12) SCC 237, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court has observed that “while deciding the transfer application, the Courts are required to give more weightage and consideration to the convenience of the female litigants and transfer of legal proceedings from one Court to another should ordinarily be allowed, taking into consideration their convenience and the Courts should desist from putting female litigants under undue hardships.”

7. Even this Court in number of cases has followed the aforesaid principle of law. Accordingly, it is well settled that while considering the transfer of a matrimonial dispute/case, at the instance of the wife, the Court is to consider the family condition of the wife, the custody of the minor child, economic condition of the wife, her physical health and earning capacity of the husband and most important the convenience of the wife i.e. she cannot travel alone without assistance of a male member of her family, connectivity of the place to and fro from her place of residence as well as bearing of the litigation charges and travelling expenses.

8. After hearing the learned counsel for the petitioner and in view of the judgments i.e. Sumita Singh's case (supra), Rajani Kishor Pardeshi's case (supra) and N.C.V. Aishwarya's case (supra) passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, this Court deems it appropriate to allow the present petition, subject to the following conditions:-

a) The petition filed by respondent-husband under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, bearing No.HMA-428-2022 titled "Ranjeet vs. Smt. Neetu Rani" pending in the Court of Principal Judge, Family Court, Sirsa is transferred to a court of competent jurisdiction at Sri Muktsar Sahib.

b) The ld. District Judge, Sirsa is directed to transfer complete record pertaining to the aforesaid case to District Judge, Sri Muktsar Sahib.

c) The parties, through their counsel, are directed to appear before the District & Sessions Judge, Sri Muktsar Sahib on 20.01.2023.

d) The District Judge, Sri Muktsar Sahib will assign the said petition to the Court of competent jurisdiction.

9. The concerned Court at Sri Muktsar Sahib will make all endeavour to refer the case before the Mediation and Conciliation Centre for exploring the possibility of some amicable settlement between the parties.

10. The Court concerned, where the litigation pending between the parties, will accommodate them with one date in one calendar month.

Disposed of.
