..... RESPONDENTS

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE ALOK JAIN

Present :- Mr. Dheraj Mahajan, Advocate for the petitioner.

 Mr. Anmol Puri, Advocate for the respondent.

ALOK JAIN, J. (Oral)

The present revision petition has been filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India praying for setting aside the impugned order dated 31.08.2022 passed by the learned trial Court, whereby the application under order 6 Rule 17 CPC filed by the petitioner seeking amendment of the plaint has been declined.

At the outset, counsel for the respondent has fairly submitted that as regards the amendment proposed in para 2 of the plaint, with regard to a typographical error of the allotment letter where the said word number typed as 183 and 184 in place of 203 and 204 is concerned, he has no objection, however, other amendment sought in the said application is vehemently opposed.

Counsel for the petitioner has fairly conceded that he does not wish to press for the other amendments, sought and hence, contains his prayer only to the said amendment, which would resolve if the technical anomaly with regard to number of the work order be amended, which would suffice for the suit to proceed further proceedings.

In view of the above, the present petition is partly allowed and order dated 31.08.2022, is set aside in view of the statement made by the counsel for the parties. The amendment in Para 2 and Para 14 of the plaint is allowed, whereby, the allotment letter No.183 and 184 be read as “203 and 204”.

In the light of the above, the petition is disposed of, however, the above said amendment to the extent as detailed above is subject to the payment of Rs.5000/- as cost to be paid to the Punjab State Legal Services Authority.
