

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRWP-10016-2022
Date of Decision: 10.11.2022

Sunder @ Kala

.....Petitioner(s)

Versus

State of Haryana and others

....Respondent(s)

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE G.S.SANDHAWALIA
HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE HARPREET KAUR JEEWAN

Present: Mr. Randeep S. Dhull, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Hitesh Pandit, Addl. A.G., Haryana.

G.S.SANDHAWALIA, J. (Oral)

The present petition has been filed for extension of parole mainly on the ground that the petitioner had undergone medical treatment. It is the case of the petitioner that he had already been granted parole on 30.09.2022 and was to surrender on 22.10.2022. On 21.10.2022, the following order was passed:-

“Extension of parole is sought which is going to expire on 22.10.2022 by placing reliance upon the medical prescriptions and counsel contends that the petitioner is undergoing treatment.

Counsel for the State prays for time to verify the said fact.

Keeping in view the above, the petitioner need not surrender on 22.10.2022.

To come up on 10.11.2022.

In the meantime, the petitioner shall also place on record the proof of any medical procedure carried out.”

Today, counsel for the State has filed reply saying that no application was received from the petitioner for extension of parole. Illness of the petitioner has been verified from the Medical Officer of the Life Aid Medical Centre, Gurugram, who had stated that the petitioner had come only for one day in OPD i.e. On 17.10.2022.

Counsel for the petitioner is also not in a position to show to this Court that any medical intervention has been done during the period the petitioner availed the benefit since he was to surrender on 22.10.2022.

Thus, it is apparent that the petitioner has not been able to make out a case for extension of parole in any manner on account of any medical exigencies. Rather, apparently it seems that he has only misused the process of this Court by filing the present petition by making wrong averments and, therefore, no further indulgence can be granted to him.

Accordingly, the present petition is dismissed with the abovesaid observations. The petitioner shall immediately surrender before the competent authority by tomorrow i.e. 11.11.2022. In case it is not done, it is open to the authorities to ensure that he is taken into custody at the earliest by taking all possible coercive measures.
