The learned counsel for the petitioners argues that the petitioners applied against the post of Trained Graduate Teachers in pursuance of the advertisement No.9 of 2015, a copy of which has been appended as Annexure P-1 but, in the ultimate selection, the petitioners have not been selected whereas, some of the candidates, who were either not eligible as per the eligibility qualification or, did not follow the process as envisaged under the Rules/Advertisement while the selection process was going on, have been selected in preference to the petitioners which is causing prejudice to the petitioners. Learned counsel submits that ineligible candidates and the candidates who submitted their documents after the last date, have been selected for the said post, which act on the part of the selecting agency is bad in law.

Mr. Harish Nain, Asstt. A.G., Haryana accepts notice on behalf of the State of Haryana and submits that though, the present petition has been filed by the petitioners but no such grievance was raised before the selecting agency for their consideration and in case any grievance is raised by the petitioners by filing any representation, the same will be considered in accordance with law and appropriate order will be passed within a period of eight weeks from the receipt of the same.

The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that keeping in view the statement made by the learned State counsel, the present petition may kindly be disposed of having been not pressed at this stage with liberty to the petitioners to approach the respondents.
