Harsimran Singh Sethi, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for the petitioner argues that the petitioner has wrongly been excluded from the zone of consideration by the respondents while undertaking the selection process and recruitment made to the post of Craft Instructor (Women) Cutting and Sewing (Theory). Learned counsel for the petitioner further argues that the petitioner was competing in the SC category and out of the total 04 posts to be filled up, only two posts have been filled up and that too with the candidates, who had secured 49 marks whereas, according to the petitioner, she has secured 55 marks. Prayer of the petitioner is that as the two posts are still lying vacant and the petitioner has better right than the selected candidates, the respondent may be directed to consider the claim of the petitioner for appointment on the said post.

Notice of motion.

Mr. Vivek Saini, Addl. A.G. Haryana, who is present in the Court, accepts notice on behalf of respondent-State and states that though, the petitioner has filed the present writ petition but no representation raising the said grievance has been filed by the petitioner before the authority concerned and in case any such representation is filed by the petitioner with the respondents, the same will be decided in accordance with law and an appropriate order on the same will be passed by the respondents within a period of 04 weeks from the date of receipt of any such representation.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that keeping in view the statement made by the learned State counsel, the present writ petition may kindly be disposed off having been not pressed any further with liberty to the petitioner to file an appropriate representation before the respondents.

Ordered accordingly.
