Harpal Singh

..Petitioner

Versus

Kawaljit Kaur

..Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. Rajeshwar Singh Thakur, Advocate for the petitioner.

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J(Oral)

The learned counsel representing the petitioner fairly submits that despite his best efforts, the petitioner (husband of the respondent) has not come forward to file an affidavit that he is not running the shop of furniture.

The learned Additional District Judge has assessed the amount of interim maintenance while deciding application under Section 24 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955. Once, the petitioner has failed to submit the affidavit, hence, no ground to interfere is made out.

Dismissed.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
