SONIA

..Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. Namit Kumar, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Ajay Ghangas, Advocate for respondent.

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J(Oral)

An interlocutory order passed by the Family Court has been challenged in this revision petition. Sh. Ajay Ghangas, Advocate, states that a decree for divorce has already been passed, therefore, the revision petition is rendered infructuous.

The learned counsel representing the petitioner feigned ignorance.

The petition is dismissed as infructuous with liberty to the petitioner to file an application for revival, if the statement made by the learned counsel representing the respondent is not factually correct.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
