Mr. Narender Singh Behgal, Assistant Advocate General,

HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that impugned order dated 30.09.2016 (Annexure P-11) has been passed by the respondents without following due process of law and interim order was passed without appreciating the actual facts.

Learned counsel for the respondents-State submits that revision petition No.62 of 2016, in which the impugned order was passed, has already been dismissed for non-prosecution since long and consequently impugned order, which was interim, has merged with the trial order and the present petition has been rendered infructuous.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that keeping in view the above statement, no further grievance of the petitioner survives in the present petition and the same may kindly be disposed of as such.

Learned counsel for the petitioner seeks liberty to revise the petition in case, the revision petition, which has been dismissed for non-prosecution, is revived along with the interim order.

Ordered accordingly.
