Harsimran Singh Sethi, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that though, respondents-authorities have passed an order dated 14.10.2022 (Annexure P/6) withdrawing the benefit of increment from the petitioner but the same has been done without appreciating a factual aspect that the petitioner had already passed the equivalent test, which under the rules governing the service, if passed, then there is no need to pass SETC test hence, the present writ petition may kindly be disposed off having been not pressed any further at this stage with liberty to the petitioner to approach the respondents raising the said grievance for their consideration and appropriate order.

Learned State counsel submits that in case the petitioner raises the grievance with the respondents as raised by him in the present writ petition, the same will be considered in accordance with law and an appropriate order on the same will be passed within a period of 08 weeks from the date of receipt of any such grievance.

Petition stands disposed off having been not pressed at this stage any further with liberty as prayed for.
