

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

135

CWP-25979-2022

Date of Decision: 15.11.2022

Parveen Rekhi and others

....Petitioners.

Versus

Reserve Bank of India and another

...Respondents.

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.S. RAMACHANDRA RAO
HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE SUKHVINDER KAUR

.....

Present: Mr. Aalok Jagga, Advocate for the petitioners.

M.S. RAMACHANDRA RAO, J. (Oral)

Petitioners grievance is that the petitioners' asset has been sold by respondent No.2 and though some amount has been refunded to the petitioners from out of the excess proceeds of the sale, some other amount has been retained by respondent No.2 on the pretext that there are prepayment charges and penal charges. The petitioners dispute their liability to pay the said charges.

The petitioners are therefore, granted liberty to file a complaint before respondent No.1 making out their grievance and respondent No.1 shall look into the said grievance, and after obtaining a response from respondent No.2, dispose of petitioners' grievance by communicating its decision thereon to the petitioners within four weeks of receipt of the said grievance from the petitioners.

The instant writ petition is disposed of accordingly.

(M.S. RAMACHANDRA RAO)
JUDGE

(SUKHVINDER KAUR)
JUDGE

15.11.2022

Komal

Whether speaking/reasoned?	:	Yes/ No
Whether reportable?	:	Yes/ No