in CWP No.26144 of 2022.

Mr. Kamal Mor, Advocate, for the petitioner(s) in CWP No.26161 of 2022 and CWP No.26170 of 2022.

Mr. Anshul Gupta, Advocate, for the petitioners
in CWP No.26194 of 2022.

Mr. Jitender S. Chahal, Advocate, for the petitioners
in CWP No.26200 of 2022.

HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI J. (ORAL)

By this common order, five writ petitions, the details of which have been given in the heading, are being disposed of as all the petitions involve the same question of law on similar facts.

In the present petitions, the grievance of the petitioners is that they are working as Guest Teachers and are now being threatened with dislocation from their present place of posting on the ground that the Guest Teachers, who have been displaced so as to accommodate regular employees, are to be adjusted at their place, which is not at all envisaged in the transfer policy.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the displaced Guest Teachers are to be accommodated at the place, which are vacant and are not to be adjusted, where other Guest Teachers are already working.

Learned counsel for the petitioner(s) submits that the petitioner(s) have already raised the said grievance by filing representations, copies of which have been attached with the petitions and the petitioner(s) will be satisfied at this stage, in case a time bound direction is issued to the respondents to decide the said representations.

Notice of motion.

Mr. Harish Nain, Assistant Advocate General, Haryana, who is present in the Court, accepts notice on behalf of the respondents.

Learned counsel for the respondents submits that the representations of the petitioner(s), if already filed or will be submitted by the petitioner(s) within a period of seven days from today, will be considered and decided within a period of eight weeks from the receipt of copy of this order.

It is directed that till a decision is taken on the representation filed by the petitioners, no coercive action of their displacement will be taken by the respondent-department.

All the writ petitions stand disposed of in above terms.

A photocopy of this order be placed on the file of other connected cases.
