...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE MEENAKSHI I. MEHTA

Present :- Mr. Surender Dhull, Advocate, for the revisionists-petitioners.

MEENAKSHI I. MEHTA, J.(ORAL)

By way of the instant revision petition, the petitioners have laid challenge to the order dated 11.11.2022 (Annexure P-2) passed by learned District Judge, Jalandhar, whereby Transfer Application No.133 of 2022 has been allowed and the civil suit titled as “Ashwani Bansal and Others vs. Vinay Kumar” has been transferred from the Court of Ms. Amandeep Kaur, learned Civil Judge (Junior Division) Jalandhar to the Court of Ms. Mandeep Kaur, learned Civil Judge-Rent Controller Jalandhar.

2. I have heard learned counsel for the petitioners, at the preliminary stage, in the present revision petition and have also perused the file carefully.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners contends that the transfer of the above-said civil suit to the Court wherein the rent petition between the same parties is already pending, may cause delay in the decision of the civil suit and therefore, the impugned order is irrational and deserves to be set aside.

4. However, I do not find any force in the afore-raised contention because besides their mere apprehension regarding the delay in the adjudication of the said civil suit, the petitioners have not come forward with any other fair and candid reason/ground to assail the legality and validity of the impugned order.

5. As a sequel to the fore-going discussion, it follows that the impugned order does not suffer from any illegality, infirmity, irregularity or perversity so as to call for any interference by this Court. Resultantly, the revision petition in hand, being sans any merit, stands dismissed
