CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANJAY VASHISTH

Present: Ms. Prabhnoor Kaur Bains, Advocate for
Mr. S.S. Grewal, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Vikas Bhardwaj, A.A.G. Haryana.

Mr. Jaitin Kaushik, Advocate for respondents No.4 to 7.

SANJAY VASHISTH , J. (Oral)

In compliance of the order dated 22.11.2022, the report of the Warrant Officer has been produced in Court in a sealed cover. The same is opened by the Court Secretary and is taken on record. Registry is directed to tag the same at an appropriate place of the file.

As per the report dated 24.11.2022, warrant officer visited the residence of respondents No.4 to 7 i.e. House No.658/8, Indra Colony, Kurukshetra at 11:12 P.M on 22.11.2022 in the company of police party and alleged detainee was got released and she (detainee) opted to go with the company of the petitioner and wanted to live with him. From that very date, petitioner and the detainee both, are staying together as husband and wife.

Today, alleged detainee and the petitioner both are present in Court and expressed their wish to stay together.

Since detainee has been got released and is presently staying with the petitioner, nothing more is left to be decided by this Court in the present petition.

However, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that some of the important documents i.e. mark-sheets, original certificate, watch and mobile phone, are in possession of the private respondents and despite of being asked to return the same to the detainee, respondents are not adhering to the same.

Upon this, Mr. Jatin Kaushik, learned counsel appearing on behalf of respondents No.4 to 7 is requested by this Court to ask his clients to return the said articles. Mr. Kaushik ensures that the said articles would be got returned to the detainee at the earliest.

In view of the above, learned counsel for the petitioner wishes to withdraw the present petition at this stage.

Dismissed as withdrawn, at this stage.

However, petitioner and detainee would be at liberty to take appropriate remedy available to him/them as per law, if necessity arises.
