Versus

Haryana Staff Selection Commission

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI

Present: None for the petitioner.

Mr. Kiran Pal Singh, AAG, Haryana.

Harsimran Singh Sethi, J. (Oral)

In the present writ petition, the grievance of the petitioner is that the petitioner was not called for interview for considering her claim for the appointment to the post of PGT (History).

As per the averments made in the present petition, the petitioner, who competed for appointment to the post of PGT (History) in pursuance to the advertisement dated 28.06.2015 (Annexure P/1), was declared qualified to be called for scrutiny of documents. After the scrutiny of the documents, the candidates were to be called for interview, which call was never given to the petitioner. The said action of the respondent is under challenge in the present petition.

After notice of motion, the respondent-Commission has filed reply, wherein, it has been submitted that after the written test, the result was published and the candidates, who qualified the written test were called for scrutiny of documents to adjudge their eligibility. After adjudging the eligibility, the candidates were to be called for interview. Keeping in view the number of posts, selecting authority decided to call the candidates for interview, who have secured 102 or more marks in the written examination. As per the record, the petitioner had not secured 102 marks in the written examination so as to be called for interview and that is why, the petitioner was not interviewed.

There is no replication to the written statement filed on behalf of the respondent.

That being so, once the petitioner failed to make grade by securing minimum marks i.e. 102, which the respondent-Commission has fixed for calling candidates for interview, no grievance can be raised.

Further, as the selection process is also completed and all the posts have already been filled and the selected candidates are not party to the present petition, no further orders are required to be passed by this Court in the present petition and the same is accordingly disposed off
