State of Punjab

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE GURBIR SINGH.

GURBIR SINGH, J (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was granted bail in the case under Section 182 IPC. His bail was cancelled and non-bailable warrants of arrest was issued against him. He noted a wrong date as 08.12.2022 whereas the actual adjourned date was 12.08.2022. He further submits that petitioner be admitted to bail as the case originally is bailable and petitioner is ready to get his new address registered in the trial Court. He then states that the petitioner would also get his mobile no. registered in the CIS so that in future he does not face any difficulty.

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner and after going through the facts of the present case coupled with the fact that he absented only on one date and residing at changed address, the instant petition is disposed of with a direction to the petitioner to appear/surrender in the trial Court within a week and move an application for bail. On his doing so, he shall be admitted to bail by the trial Court subject to his furnishing bail bonds and surety bonds to its satisfaction.
