

[162] IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

COCp-2763-2022

Date of Decision : 15.12.2022

Anand Kumar ...Petitioner

versus

Rohit YadavRespondent

Coram : Hon'ble Mr. Justice B.S. Walia

Present : Mr. Johan Kumar, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Padamkant Dwivedi, Advocate for the respondent.

B.S. Walia, J. (Oral)

[1] Prayer in the instant petition is for initiation of proceedings against the respondent for intentional and willful defiance of order, Annexure P-1, dated 29.09.2022, in CWP-22600-2022.

[2] A perusal of Annexure P-1, reveals that CWP-22600-2022, was disposed of by directing the respondent to decide representation dated 15.12.2021, within four weeks from the date of receipt of certified copy of the order and in case the petitioner was found entitled to monetary benefits on decision of representation, to release the same to the petitioner within four weeks thereafter.

[3] Although notice has not been issued in this case, yet, learned counsel for the respondent has produced copy of order dated 15.12.2022, sanctioning an amount of Rs.15,97,440/- on account of gratuity and leave encashment. Learned counsel further states that the aforementioned amount would be released to the petitioner within two weeks from today.

Order dated 15.12.2022 is taken on record and copy thereof supplied to learned counsel for the petitioner, who on perusal thereof state that while he does not press the instant petition but prays for grant of liberty to the petitioner to seek interest on delayed release of gratuity and leave encashment, by way of appropriate proceedings in accordance with law.

[4] In view of the position noted above as well as statement of learned counsel for the petitioner, the instant petition is disposed of as not calling for any action against the respondent under the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971, while granting liberty to the petitioner as prayed for.
