CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. Sunil Agnihotri, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Ms. Ruby Kaur, Advocate for respondent no.1.

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J (Oral)

The petitioners' application for re-call of the plaintiff's witnesses has been dismissed by the trial Court. Initially the petitioners' defence was struck off. They filed a revision petition in this Court which was allowed. In the meantime, the petitioners (defendants in the suit) were permitted to cross-examine the witnesses examined by the plaintiff. Now, the petitioners pray for re-call of the aforesaid witnesses.

From the facts available on the file, it is evident that the plaintiff is required to prove a Will allegedly executed by late Sh. Surjit Singh. Moreover, it is to be decided that whether defendant no.1 inherits a life estate or not, on the basis of the alleged Will?

Once the petitioners have already cross-examined the witnesses at length, there is no occasion to grant another opportunity.

In view thereof, no ground to interfere is made out.

Dismissed.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
