DECIDED ON: 28.12.2022

ATLEY BRAR @ ATTLEY SUKHJINDER SINGH

.....PETITIONER

VERSUS

STATE OF PUNJAB

.....RESPONDENT

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANDEEP MOUDGIL

Present: Mr. K.S. Nalwa, Advocate for the petitioner.

SANDEEP MOUDGIL, J. (Oral)

After arguing at length, when this Court was not inclined to grant the discretionary relief under Section 438 Cr.P.C., learned counsel for the petitioner prays for withdrawal of the present petition with liberty to surrender within one week from today.

Prayer is allowed.

Dismissed as withdrawn with afore-said liberty.

However, considering prayer made by the counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to surrender before the concerned authorities within a period of four days from today and apply for regular bail. In case such an application for bail is moved by the petitioner before the concerned authorities after surrender, the same shall be considered and decided in accordance with law as expeditiously as possible.
