CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ALOK JAIN

Present: Mr. Rishab Bhandari, Advocate for the petitioners.

ALOK JAIN, J. (Oral)

The present Criminal Writ Petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for directing respondent Nos.2 and 3 to protect the life and liberty of the petitioners.

At the outset, learned counsel for the State has submitted that the police has investigated and approached respondent No.4, who has suffered a statement to the extent that petitioner No.2, who is his sister, is a major and understands her welfare and well-being. In fact, on 26.12.2022, she left the house on the pretext of going for giving an examination, however, in the evening, a telephonic message was received that she has married with petitioner No.1 out of her own free will. It has also been stated in the statement of respondent No.4 that he has no objection to their marriage.

Faced with the said situation, counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are not yet married but are in a live-in-relationship.

Be that as it may, in the light of the statement made by counsel for the State, on instructions from ASI Rishi Pal, that there is no threat perception persisting, the present petition is rendered infructuous, at this stage.

Ordered accordingly.

Disposed of as infructuous.
