Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. He has falsely been implicated in this case due to village politics. It is further submitted that there is no specific overt act against the petitioner rather general and omnibus allegation has been levelled against him. It is also submitted that there is case and counter case between the parties and both parties have sustained injuries as alleged in separate occurrence. The injuries sustained by injured are simple in nature. A statement has been made in para-3 of this petition that the petitioner has got no criminal antecedent. The application for bail is opposed by learned APP for the State.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case as well as the custody of the petitioner, the Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail.
