ORAL ORDER

2 11-05-2023 Heard learned counsels for the petitioners and the State.

Petitioners apprehend arrest in registered for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 323, 307, 379, 504 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per prosecution case, these petitioners assaulted the informant by means of iron rod, danda and inflicted injury on the head of the informant.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submit that the petitioners are innocent. It is next submitted that petitioner No. 1 is own cousin brother of the informant and there is dispute between the parties with regard to partition of ancestral property and due to which this false and concocted case has been made against these petitioners.

However, learned counsel for the State opposes the prayer for bail and submits that there is specific allegation of assault against these petitioners and informant sustained grievous injury.

Considering the nature of accusation and grievous nature of injury, prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners is rejected.
