ORAL ORDER

2 16-02-2023 Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has preferred this writ petition for seeking 'No Objection Certificate' from the State Government, as Central Council of Indian Medicine had already granted approval, but on account of lack of N.O.C., the petitioner's application for recognition has been rejected.

In view thereof, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks liberty to allow the petitioner to file a fresh application before the authority concerned for the issuance of necessary ‘No Objection Certificate’ from the State Government and approval accordingly from Central Council of Indian Medicine.

With the aforesaid liberty to the petitioner, the present writ petition is disposed of.
