the offence punishable under Sections 448, 147, 148, 323, 379, 504, 506, 387 of the IPC.

3. As per First Information Report, one Sri Ram Transport company, Arwal had released a vehicle in the name of one Saddam Alam on loan and due to non payment of installment of the loan amount, the Company seized the vehicle from the said Saddam. It has further been alleged that on 19.03.2020, the petitioner along with co-accused persons fifteen in number arrived at the Branch Office of the Company and gave threatening of dire consequences. Again on 20.03.2020 in the evening, the petitioner along with other accused persons fifteen in number attacked the informant with Lathi, Danda and iron rods and threatened to kill him. Lastly, the accused persons snatched mobile, purse, gold chain, gold ring and one Lac settlement amount.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the vehicle was given on loan not in favour of the petitioner but in favour of co-accused, Saddam. He further submits that allegation against the petitioner is not specific and only general and omnibus allegation has been levelled against him. The bail application of the petitioner has been rejected by the learned Sessions Judge only on the ground that petitioner has got criminal antecedent. One of the co-accused, namely, Abhishek Ranjan who happens to be Mukhiya has been granted bail by the court below itself.

5. Regards being had to the submissions made by the parties and taking into consideration the fact that the general and omnibus allegation has been made against the petitioner, he is in custody since 09.11.2022 and the charge-sheet has already been submitted in the matter, I am inclined to grant regular bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, let the petitioner, VIKASH KUMAR
