CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MOHIT KUMAR SHAH
ORAL ORDER

6 02-01-2023 Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned APP for the State.

The petitioner seeks regular bail in connection with Lakhnaur P.S. Case No. 124/2019, corresponding to G.R.No. 795/2019, registered for the offence punishable under Sections 302, 201, 341, 323 and 379/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The petitioner is alleged to have killed his wife by pressing her neck and had disposed of the dead body by burning the same with the help of the villagers with the intention of concealing the evidence.

The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is innocent, he has been falsely implicated in the present case, he is having a clean antecedent and he is languishing in custody since 17.8.2020. The learned counsel for the petitioner has further submitted that the petitioner had solemnized marriage about 12-13 years back, hence, he could not ever think of killing his wife.

Per contra, the learned APP for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer for bail.

I have heard the learned counsel for the parties and gone through the materials on record as also perused the case diary in question from which the complicity of the petitioner in the alleged occurrence is writ large and there are ample materials on record to show that the petitioner has killed his wife, hence, I do not find any merit in the present petition. Accordingly, the present petition stands dismissed.
