CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJEEV RANJAN PRASAD
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date : 28-04-2023

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the respondents.

2. The petitioner in the present case is seeking a direction to the respondents to consider the transfer of her son who is posted as Constable at Greater Noida in the State of U.P. to his Home District in Patna, State of Bihar.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is 67 years old and her husband is 79 years old and they are critically ill, therefore, the transfer of the son of the petitioner be considered on sympathetic grounds.

4. Learned counsel for the respondents submits that the son of the petitioner is posted at Noida in the State of U.P. where good medical facilities are available, therefore, he can take care of his parents while living at Noida. It is further submitted that the son of the petitioner has been transferred to Noida on 08.09.2022.

5. Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the respondents, this Court finds no reason to issue any direction to the respondents to transfer the son of the petitioner in the home district, however, this Court would observe that in case the respondents have any policy whereunder they can consider the case of transfer of the son of this petitioner, the dismissal of this writ application shall not come in their way and the representation may be considered in accordance with the policies of the respondents.

6. This writ application stands disposed of accordingly.
