of the Arms Act.
3. The main submissions advanced by the learned counsel for the petitioner are that the petitioner has fair and clean antecedent and he was not apprehended at the spot and apprehended co-accused persons disclosed the name of this petitioner as being involved in the alleged crime of loot and after arrest the petitioner was not put on test identification parade and no incriminating material was recovered from his possession. Further submissions are that the petitioner has been languishing in jail since 16.10.2022 and against him the investigation has been completed.

5. Considering the above submissions and mainly petitioner's fair and clean antecedent and also the facts that he was not apprehended at the spot and his role in the alleged crime was disclosed by the apprehended co-accused persons and against him the investigation has been completed, in my opinion, it is a fit case for bail to the petitioner.
